Recitation of the Finance Boy

So led you off a cliff?
Well, I’m just the exact confederate to float right up again on all that government dough!

Oh, & take you alongside, of course! & let‘s be more charitable to my fellow Republicans wandering through the political wilderness of acid ridicule & laughing scorn.

You say they still can live on what I helped them steal? That’s harsh! Ah but one hand washed the other so very beautifully then!

Joy! It proved a form of highest Truth & Art!  But...different ballpark & if I beg enough, I’ll get the bat in my hands once again for a good long game.

(& even eventually say that these really ARE the golden, good old days!)
